STIPULATED TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

This matter comes before the Court upon the motion of Plaintiffs for a temporary restraining order, seeking to preserve the status quo, i.e. W.B.’s enrollment and attendance as a student at Crossroads Academy-Central Street (“Crossroads”). The parties held a conference in chambers on September 10, 2019. In an effort to allow W.B. to maintain enrollment in this initial period of this suit, Eric Schmidt and Randall Williams (collectively, the “State Defendants”), Crossroads, Karis Parker, or Eva Copeland (collectively, “Crossroads Defendants”) and Plaintiffs reached a stipulation.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, the Court ORDERS as follows:

1. Defendants may not take any action to suspend W.B.’s enrollment or attendance at Crossroads for reason of his failure to submit a current original Form Imm.P.11A or otherwise due to his status as unvaccinated during the pendency of this order, except in the event of a localized vaccine preventable disease outbreak or other public health emergency as outlined in paragraph 2.
2. In the event of a localized vaccine preventable disease outbreak or other public health emergency, the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services (“DHSS”) reserves the right to exercise its statutory and regulatory authority, which may include restricting unvaccinated students from attending school for a period of time, in order to protect the public health.

3. The Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services and the Missouri Attorney General (“State Defendants”) shall take no adverse action or enforcement action against the Crossroads Defendants during the duration of this Order if the Crossroads Defendants, in their discretion, opt to treat similarly situated Crossroads students in a similar manner as required for W.B. in paragraph 1; nor will the State Defendants take adverse action or enforcement action against the Crossroads Defendants relating this same conduct in the period when the Order was in effect after the Order expires.

4. Neither the stipulation nor this Order shall operate as a waiver by the Crossroads Defendants or State Defendants of any argument in this litigation, or shall prohibit any actions by them with respect to W.B. or any other students after the expiration of this Order.

Plaintiffs’ motion for temporary restraining order (Doc. 7) is GRANTED, and this Order shall remain in effect, subject to the conditions stated above, until the Court issues a ruling on the Plaintiffs’ motions for preliminary injunction.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
